Adam P. Pollard

OCT 28, 1985 - MAY 1, 2013

Adam P. Pollard, 27, of Clinton, died Wednesday, May 1, 2013 at his home in Clinton.

The family will greet family and friends Sunday, May 5, 2013, from 1:00-4:00pm at the Clinton Chapel Snell-Zornig Funeral Homes & Crematory. A short prayer will conclude the visitation. Online condolences may be expressed by visiting obituary at www.snellzornig.com

Adam Patrick Pollard was born on October 28, 1985 in Clinton, the son of Patrick and Lisa (Blanchard) Pollard. He was a 2004 graduate of Clinton High School.

Adam was currently employed with Local 309 Laborers of Rock Island. Prior to the union he was employed with Clinton Engineering from 2004-2011.

Adam adored his one year old daughter, Halle. He loved spending time on the river with his family and friends. He was a hard worker. He enjoyed spending time with his faithful companion Lula. He also enjoyed tending to his many aquariums and snapping turtle.

Adam is survived by his daughter: Halle Pollard; his parents: Pat and Lisa Pollard of Fulton; his brother: Andrew (Molly) Pollard of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; his special friend: Alisha Greene and her daughter: Hannah of Clinton; his nephew: Aiden; his paternal grandmother: Jacqueline Pollard of Clinton; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Adam was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather: Richard Pollard, and his maternal grandparents: Velda and Clair Pickens.

Memorials can be made to an educational fund being established for his daughter.

I wasn't a close friend of Adams. As children our parents were friends and I can remember playing Ninja Turtles with him. Later in high school we had a lot of friends in common and I got to know him a little better. After high school we still would see each other around and always if we were in the same room would have a conversation and just hang as friends. my favorite memories of Adam were whenever I would drive by him working construction I would yell something funny out the window to him or he would honk his bulldozer horn at me and yell stuff to me. we definitely have the same humor.... what a great guy. im really going to miss him. Though not a close friend I like him so much as a person I just needed to say something (and im not one to talk very much or even share feelings).. that should say something about him. RIP

I attended Adam's visitation Sunday and have been searching for words to express what I experienced. Death is never easy, and my heart goes out to all of his family and friends. Among the darkness, however, there is light, a light that may seem dim at this moment, but nonetheless will serve to brighten all of our lives as we cope and remember Adam. I am one of the friends that graduated from Clinton High and shared many fun times with Adam over the years. Many friends that were present Sunday I have not seen for some time, and I am so grateful to reconnect and be reminded of how close nit of bunch we all are--we are family. With death, we are reminded of how precious life really is. How precious every person is in our life, no matter how close we are or how long its been since seeing each other. It is not fair that life must be lost to remind us of these lessons, but Adam is still sharing with us even in the afterlife. He has reminded me of the important things in life--friends and family. Adam, may your spirit shine above us all, may we all remember that you will always apart of us, and may we remember that the relationships we share on this planet are impermanent, short an therefore, should never be taken for granted. For this I pay tribute, and may your legacy serve to strengthen all who you've touched.

I am so sorry to hear of Adam's passing. I went to school with his brother, Andrew, and I remember feeling jealous of what a wonderful family they had, yet happy for them. I was not in the same boat, obviously, and I just thought they were the best family ever. I am sure they still are. I do know that when a loss like this happens, the pain runs very deep. Not only was this unexpected, but so many are directly impacted. My thoughts go immediately to his daughter and the girl he treated as his own daughter. How little time they had with Adam... I then think of his parents, brother, and girlfriend and how they are all hurting so much, in different ways, in varying degrees at different times, and how nightmarish this must feel for each of them. I pray that they will each find comfort and forgiveness in each other. If loss serves any purpose, let it be that we need to build each other up and be there no matter what. Stay strong, and know that a former classmate (now super far away), is thinking of you, Andrew! So sorry.

When, I switched grade schools at a young age, Adam, Patrick, Seamus, Andrew B, and many others took me under their wing. I will be at the visitation for a short time today, but have a hard time with words when I am choked up. Adam and his group of friends "took me under their wing" so to speak after my Father passed away my freshmen year of high school, and he especially always made sure to ensure that I felt welcome, even though he and his friends were a bit older than me. We later dated briefly and he was one of the kindest, most caring, considerate, fun-loving people I had ever met. We had a lot of good times whether it was at Keeney's farm, my house, and especially when he joined me, my sister, and her husband for my first Jimmy Buffet show at Wrigley. He was always there when anyone needed anything at all, and I just wish one of us could have been there in his greatest time of need. My condolences to everyone involved. Lindsey Pardee "LP"

There is no written language extensive enough to accurately communicate how much Adam meant to myself and to some of our friends. We lost a part of ourselves today. Adam was more than a good friend to me he was like a brother. We hit it off as amigos back in the first grade. He was one of the most hard working, loyal, dependable friends I've ever had in my life. We grew up together, we worked together (at the Frontier Best Western; some of you remember, some of you were there as well), we played together, we went through good times and bad time together. We always insisted on learning things the "hard way". We built forts, we went paintballing, we went camping, we went fishing, we got into trouble together. We loved spending time on the river with the rest of our tight crew. We liked to spend our free time at Eagle Point Park as well. Adam was always up for an adventure. We had many of those together. As we got older I left town for college and although we didn't spend much time together, we still kept in phone contact. He shared the news of the birth of his new baby girl with me over the phone about a year ago, and I was fortunate enough to spend some time with them both together last January. It was obvious how much he loved her (Adam was always fiercely protective of the people he cared about). Adam welcomed me into his home and gave me a place to stay for several days. We spent time just cruising around, seeing the old stomping grounds, and reminiscing about our earlier days. I got myself acquainted with his sweet baby girl Halle. We grilled steaks on my last day there. It had been several years since I had been back to Clinton, but in that moment it was as if no time had passed at all. I'd like to believe that's how it will be when we meet again. We will pick right back up where we left off; smiling, joking, and grilling. Until then, the rest of our years here will never be the same without you Polly. I hope you can feel the loveRat Peilly

Oh my dear Alisha, I can't even fathom the pain you must be going through right now. I know your feelings for Adam were deep and true. He was a great guy with a smile that lit up the room, he was always happy and positive. Adam was such a wonderful father to Halle and to Hannah as well which really says something about his character to be able to share his love with her like that. His love for you was deep Alisha and I know your sorrow will haunt you for some time. You know we really cared for Adam and as far as we are concerned he will always be a member of our family too! I'm so sorry he left us all too soon and I know we would all love to see his smile one last time. You have shared the last few years of your life with him and you will have many good memories to help you through this hard time. You will also have that beautiful daughter of his to share his memories. I'm sorry to all for your loss! R.I.P AdamLove Scott & Anna Matthew & kids

Just remember the good memories you and adam have and treasure them. He will always be with you in your heart till the day you guys meet again.. Your heart is going to ache for quite some time but you have so many people you can go to for support.. Eventually the pain will go away. But the memories never will. We will always be here no matter what were right up the road and I'm just a phone call away. ? Halle- Baby girl you are a spitting image of your daddy. You will never know him or understand why he did this but he loved you very much and you have a wonderful mommy that adores you and your big sissy. She will be there to get you thrw this when your old enough to understand what happened like you and your sissy are here to get her thrw this. We love you little one ? Hannah- He has been there for you like a father and you are hurting also but remember all the good times like swimming last summer, walking to the spill way on the river, the fun you had at Wisconsin Dells, and just spending time together. He may not be here in person but hes alive in your heart and he is up in heaven looking down on you, your mommy, and your little sister. Keep your chin up pretty girl. It will get easier. We promise. Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved son Adam. He was so young with so much more to give and get in life. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. We are comforted by the hope of the resurrection. God holds out this wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said " I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE." Mark 5:38-43 is one of the nine accounts of ones who were resurrected. What a blessed reason to hope in God! The gift of memories of Adam will bring you great joy and turn into a treasure. You and yours will receive strength through prayer to God, you will feel comfort by the loving concern of your God-fearing friends, and you will be uplifted by studying God's Word. Adam was more to me than a "special friend" Adam was the love of my life, my life partner, my fiancé, the father to my children. My heart is broken in this time of sadness. I feel so deeply sorry for all his family, friends, and every one close to him Adam was a great man with a great heart whom I planned on spending the rest of my life with but God works in mysterious ways. Adam was an amazing father to our daughter Halle and acted like a great father to my daughter Hannah. I will never forget all the special memories we have shared together. And am truly hurt by the things we never got to accomplish as planned. I will never forget him for the fact that he is the love of my life. The one man who will ever truly own my heart. He was and still is an amazing person and that is how every one should remember him. The man with a smile that could light up any room.
