Dear Nancy and family, I met Harry when he worked at the Cargill seed corn plant. It was a privilege to work with him. He would help me with some maintenance tasks besides the production line and found him to be an accomplished craftsman. He would always talk about you and the kids. My deepest sympathies to you and your family. Allan "Rogie" Rogis

Dear Nancy and family, My deepest Sympathies to you all. I so enjoyed caring for Harry at MLCN, as you know. What a kind man he was. He so enjoyed talking about you and his family. It was great to see the big smile on his face when he had you guys together at the picnic. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. RIP dear Harry. Nurse JudyMLCN
