Shirley, I thought of you today when picking up a pillow you taught me to make when you gave me sewing lessons years ago now. I didn't know when you had passed and I know the world is not as bright without you in it. My late condolences to your family. Rest in peace.

My deepest condolences on your families loss. She was an amazing woman and we all have amazing memories with her and your family. The Singer's were my surrogate family (so to speak) and I thank the good lord every day I was able to spend with Shirley and your family.
