Ted was the kindest man I have known. I could never repay the kindness Ted has shown me and my family. I know everyone must pass. In this case, I am mourning not only for his family but for the world. We lost a good soul here. The good news is heaven is a little brighter. And Ted had a lot of years too touch and show his kindness to many people. Thank you Ted for your kindness. My Wife, Sanae, has planted seeds from Teds flowers in Japan. We will nurture and enjoy them in memory of Ted and his kindness. God bless

Heinz & Mary Hehlke lit a candle in honor of Theodor.

Our thoughts and prayers to the family of Ted Strunk. We knew him for years, he did our taxes for us in Clinton. I cleaned house for Doris for many years, and we remember them at Immanuel Lutheran church in Camanche. May the happy memories you have of your father help you through this difficult time. God Bless!
