To the Greatest Mom She was the woman that would cheer you on for a raise you received or even pray for you if you were applying for a job. My mom was there. She would even cry with you if something made you sad. I will miss her talks. She enjoyed going to church and even Red Hats at The Alverno. We had lots of fun together. When the time comes, I can't wait to see her again and continue our visit where we left off. Thanks Mom for everything. Lynnette

Fred and Lynnette- Saddened to learn of your Mothers passing. As a young girl, she would let me borrow her copies of "Raggedy Ann and Andy " books. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. Pat Thomsen Rehnblom
