I am deeply saddened by the passing of Miss Gail. I loved taking care of her. She had the brightest smile and the most beautiful heart. I would always tell her how beautiful she is and she would say "oh please I'm dutch I'm not beautiful I have a round face" and I would always reply, "what if I was dutch" and she would say "then you're ugly too" and she would get such a laugh out of it. It is the simple things that I enjoyed with gail and I will miss her dearly.

I enjoyed Gail's stories about the boat club, her home, and her roadster, and growing up in Oskaloosa. My daughter Sophie also enjoyed visiting with Gail. I am glad to have had the chance to know her, if only for a little while. peace, Pastor Le Anne Clausen de Montes
