Jean, I think about our old Walgreens days and I used to go with you to your parents home on 7th, you eating cold spaghetti for breakfast and your Mom laughing. What great memories, you were there for me when my Mom died in 69, thanks for being a great friend. I send you our sympathy and many hugs, your Mom and my Mother in law were good friends from Prince of Peace, Irene Franzen. They now share their friendship in heaven. Love, Sheila & Don.
