Michael R. Taylor

OCT 17, 1940 - AUG 6, 2019

Michael R. Taylor passed away at his home in the afternoon of August 6, 2019 after a long and valiant battle with cancer, his loving wife by his side.

Michael Robert Taylor was born October 17, 1940 in Boone, Iowa, the son of Robert and Eva (Foote) Taylor. He was a 1958 graduate of Clinton High School. He attended Clinton Junior College and Stout State College in Menomonie, Wisconsin. He married Belinda Komperud in Galesville, Wisconsin on September 2, 1961.

Michael worked for the Clinton Community Schools for 38 years as a vocational teacher mostly in the auto mechanic department.

He is survived by his loving wife Belinda Taylor of Clinton; two children: Linda May Taylor of Camden, Indiana and Michael Robert Taylor of Frederick, Maryland; two grandchildren; four great grandchildren; one brother; and one sister.

Michael was preceded in death by his parents and one sister.

The Snell-Zornig Funeral Homes and Crematory is honored to serve the Taylor family and online condolences may be expressed by visiting his obituary at Mr Taylor was one of my favorite teachers. He taught me alot about mechanics and life in general. He helped me get my first job in the automotive world and remembered me well after high school. I feel he really cared for his students.

My deepest sympathies. As a former CHS student and then teacher at CHS I have many good memories of Mr. Taylor. Always difficult for me to call him Mike. One of those people who might have seemed quiet but was so easy to talk to once you got to know him.
