Diana S Lassen, nee. Smith, was born on September 28, 1948 in Clinton, Iowa, the daughter of Robert and Marie Smith (nee. Wiersema). She passed away suddenly at MercyOne, Clinton, IA.

A 1967 graduate of Clinton High School, she went on to earn her Bachelor's of Arts from Lindenwood College of St. Charles, Missouri, then pursued her degree in Physical Therapy from Washington University of St. Louis. Diana was a dedicated physical therapist, working primarily with the elderly, beginning in 1972 for Clinton Physical Therapy in Clinton and Dewitt, Iowa and Morrison, Illinois, retiring as head of Morrison Physical Therapy in 2010.

Diana enjoyed the textile arts with cross stitch, knitting, and crocheting. Friends and relatives always longed to receive one of her masterpieces as a gift. She had a beautiful singing voice and was a member of the RiverChor in Clinton. Diana was a faithful Christian and cared deeply for her community and church. She was a devoted member of Fulton Presbyterian Church, and PEO Chapter of Kentucky. She loved to travel as much as she enjoyed a quiet night at home, and she would try to visit a yarn shop anytime she went to a new city.

Lassen, of Denver Colorado; five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Diana was the first new person I met when I joined RiverChor in its first season 16 years ago. We quickly became friends, leaning into each other to catch a note the other had trouble with, as well as sharing many laughs. We also enjoyed talking about yarn and knitting. I will miss Diana very much, and send love and prayers to Uwe and the family.

Diana was our neighbor for several years, while we lived in Clinton. She was like a sister to me! We enjoyed getting together for supper and she was a wonderful cook. I learned to knit with her help and I joined her prayer shawl group at the Presbyterian church. We enjoyed going to events with Diana and Uwe, especially those that supported the symphony. We have kept in touch since we moved away but so sad to learn my dear friend passed away.

I enjoyed our conversations at our classmate luncheons. We were reacquainted quite a few years ago when our mothers were neighbors at the Alverno. Diana was such a kind person. She will be missed by many. Thoughts and prayers to her family. Julie
