Barb Peavey And Living Skills Class lit a candle in honor of Lisa.

We had the wonderful pleasure of meeting and spending time with Lisa when our Central High School Living Skills class would visit Westwing for Bingo and Bowling. What a beautiful person inside an out. What cherished memories we have of our conversations and laughter together. How grateful we are to have become friends with this very special lady! Our love and sympathy.. She will be greatly missed. A cherished lady that left cherished memories.
