Lorna Nadine Heath was born October 3, 1946 in Clinton, Iowa, the daughter of Lawrence and Geraldine (Perryman) Heath. She attended Clinton Schools. She married Arnold Lehmkuhl on March 3, 1978 in Clinton, Iowa.

Lorna was a homemaker and took pride in keeping her home top notch by doing every chore daily. She loved traveling old gravel roads as a younger gal with her sister, camping with her husband and kids, bird watching, watching the National Geographic and Animal planet channel and listening to her favorite country and western music.. Shhhh, be quiet because this is her song so no talking unless you were singing along... She especially loved her husband and kids. In her eyes, they did no wrong and don't you say otherwise. She is going to be greatly missed...

She is survived by her husband Arnold Lehmkuhl of Camanche; 7 children: Bridgett (Danny Beasley) Conklin of Clinton, Bryan (Robin) Babcock of Camanche, Brad Babcock of Clinton, Gerrie Babcock of Clinton, Katrina (Will Broge) Lehmkuhl of Gratiot, Wisconsin, Arnie (Rebecca) Lehmkuhl of Clinton and Cory Lehmkuhl of Camanche; 9 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; siblings: Fonda Jones, Barbara Densmore, Lawrence Heath, Bonnie Bruggenwirth, Becky Newmarch, Brenda Heath and Kandy Green; and many nieces and nephews.

Lorna was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters.

Memorials may be made to the family and the family would like to extend a thank you to Mercy One and the staff for caring for and looking after mom during her stay.

It was the summer of 1984 my brothers and sisters and I went down to the park in South Clinton. At that time the people that took care of the park would turn on the sprinklers that were attached to the bathrooms. Anyway we were talking to some friends and the sprinklers were turned on, so decided hey lets have a water fight the boys against the girls. My brother Arnie and I went back home which was 2 blocks to get buckets. When we got home we didn't know that mom was in the bathroom, next thing we knew was her in the doorway disguising her voice "what are you guys doing!" We both jumped and I said getting buckets for a water fight at the park. She smiled and said make sure to bring those buckets back. We had a blast and we didn't know that Jerry Dahl from the Clinton Herald was there taking our pictures until we stopped. Gerrie, Katrina, Arnie, Cory and myself returned home (yes with the buckets) she asked if we had fun and we told her the we had our pictures taken. She got mad and said you don't have strange people taking your pictures. We told her it was Jerry Dahl from the Clinton Herald, she said she didn't care who it is. Next the paper arrived and there we were, she got up got a pair of scissors and cut out those pictures and put them in the photo album where they are to this day. She then called our grandma and her about it.
