Norma, We hope you can find some comfort in the wonderful memories you have of Jill's life, and the knowledge that her pain and suffering is over. Although you will miss her, you will honor her by being there for her daughters as much as possible, and finding some joy in each day. Love to you, Ken and Elaine

Sorry for your loss. I went to school with Jill. I know its hard to lose a loved one, at such a young age. My dad passed away when he was only 48 and and my mom when she was 65 to cancer and you just have to remember all the good times you had. Again sorry for your loss my prayers are with you.

Jill has a special place in our hearts. Along with your tears remember to smile at what her life has meant to all of us. Being gone doe's not mean she isn't here in the little day to day things we do that remind us of some time we spent together or something she said that can put a smile on our face. The best thing is that we had her in our lives, which makes us fortunate.
