Dear Tom and Marietta and family, Sorry to read of Millie's death. I knew her pretty well working at Clinton Corn Processing. A wonderful lady and always had a smile. She was nice to all of us younger employees and was well respected in her position. She raised two great boys that is an accomplishment. I have a previous commitment and will not make the visitation. You have my sympathy. Martha Truax

Dear Rick and Mom Millie was a funny one. She was clever and cunning. Such a quick mind. And, her hands were keen as well. We still have her 'Hugs are a Perfect Gift - one size fits all' cross stitch on our guest bedroom wall. It's always commented on as 'so true'. You've been an outstanding son to Millie, Rick. And, Mom as her daughter in law. Well done. Many wouldn't love the way you have. We're remembering Millie. We love you forever. Paul and Pam
