Carol Hass

JAN 26, 1936 - MAY 21, 2008

Carol L. Hass, 72, of Cordova, Illinois, formerly of Clinton, died Wednesday, May 21, 2008 at the Clarissa C. Cook Hospice House, Bettendorf, Iowa.

A Memorial Visitation will be Friday, May 23, 2008 from 5:00 to 7:00pm at the Clinton Chapel Snell-Zornig Funeral Homes and Crematory. Don Krambeck will conclude the visitation with a brief prayer at 7:00pm.

Carol Lea Morris was born on January 26, 1936 in Decatur, Indiana, the daughter of George O. and Viola (Wagenschutz) Morris. She married James Hass on October 9, 1955 in Clinton, Iowa.

Carol was a 1954 graduate of Clinton High School and was a homemaker.

Carol enjoyed quilting, traveling, reading, gardening, and spending time on and around the Mississippi River. She was also an over 40 year member of the Daughters of the Nile.

Carol is survived by her loving husband of 52 years: Jim Hass of Cordova; two daughters: Christi (Steve) Pallo of Clinton, Illinois, and Julie (Ben) Hensley of Lincoln City, Oregon; one son: Jay (Janet) Hass of Grapevine, Texas; and five grandchildren: Nicholas Pallo, Christopher Pallo, Andy Hensley, Jim Hass, and Keri Hass.

Carol was preceded in death by her parents, and one son in infancy: Berthold.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers that memorials be made to the Genesis Cancer Care Institute or the Clarissa C. Cook Hospice House.

To the Hass family, there are many stories that could be told of the kindness and patience of Carol to the new boaters. Many she took under her wing to let them know the in's and out's of boating etiquette. She was always quick to give praise when our efforts paid off. Thanks for the memories.

Dear Family of Carol Hass, I have known Carol many years. We would see each other with a group of gals for coffee and chit-chat. We stopped by at the gas pumps at Cordova and received a happy hello!! One time is was starting to storm so she invited all to come in the house. I think Tom and Bev Havens were with us that day.She put up a good fight with the cancer and I do not know her illness now but know God will welcome her with open arms.My sympathy to you all.Martha Truax
