I feel privileged that I got to cross paths with Kaz Gebski. He was pleasant to be around. We could talk about what it was like to work on a farm before modern equipment and we talked about our work place at Clinton Corn Processing years ago. Some of the co-workers would tell about Kaz's good sense of humor and they still have good memories of this kind man. I will miss him but at the same time I know he is now in God's loving care.

Uncle Kazik will always be remembered as a kind, gentle soul. A caregiver to his entire family, his generosity was endless. His nephews remember being children and what a treat it was to get to spend time with Uncle Kazik. A ride in his car to Dairy Queen (an immediate treat and also one to take home for later) or maybe a trip to Eagle Point Park to play in the tunnel and the castle. As time went on and we all had our busy lives and families, Uncle Kazik remained always available to visit or help with whatever needs came up. We will miss his contagious smile and sense of humor. And we will live in a way that would continue to make him proud.
