It is the nature of life for people to pass away. Parents fear of losing their children every day, but rarely expect it to happen. When the balance of nature takes such a sad turn, everyone mourns for the loss of life. Your loss is a tragedy to every parent. We pray that you will find peace in your memories, and hope that a smile will come when you need it the most. Our lives are remembered by what we leave behind, so share your memories, and your thoughts with everyone, whenever you can, so Broc can live on through all of us. -Rod & Billie
