Daddy, I still am your little girl and I will do my best to honor you in my decisions and life. Every success will be because of all you poured into me. I will never forget the best of you, ever. You are still my hero. I'll see you again, Dad, dancing with our Lord.

We are so sad. You all have been such a hugh part of our lives, your house was ours and ours was yours. My best memories were going to the farm in the station wagon. I cry for you loss and laugh at everything we put him through. We were wild naughty girls (especially you, Peggy and Karla). I was always along but frightened in the back seat. Love you all and hold tight to the memories, Karen
