Dear Sharon, JoAnn, Julie, Jeff & Family, We were sad to hear about Edith's passing. You have our sympathies. Edith & Eddie were the best neighbors anyone could have ever had. I looked forward daily to Edith poking her head in the back door just to say "hi". My Mom liked to tell the story of when her & Bob came back from vacation. They left Edith in charge to watch over us boys & the house. Edith told Mom that one hour before they got home she saw me mowing the lawn last minute on a dead run. Edith had warned me that the lawn must be mowed. Her loving presence was always felt nearby. My life is richer for having known her. Terry

I am so sorry for your loss. Edith was my grandparents neighbor for many years. After my grandma passed away she checked on my grandpa daily. I will never forget that she taught me how to iron ruffles in a skirt. She sure gave me a hard time when I was doing it wrong and said "let me show you how to do it." Edith was a great lady and I am very glad that I had the chance to know her.
