Kathy, Chris, Cheryl and the entire family,I am devastated by this! Over 35+ years of knowing Leonard, I have been his employee, and he has been mine. When that transitioned to his Home Maintenance, we continued our association. Leonard was my Ghostbuster guy – “who you gonna call?” Well, I called Leonard when I had something that needed to be fixed. He was the most kindhearted, hard working soul I’ve ever known. Truly rare, but genuine to his core. But most of all, over the years he had become a true, valued, and very dear friend. Our discussions about everything from Hawkeyes to politics was always thought provoking and mentally enjoyable. The last time I saw him he was helping me (on several occasions) with my RV. It will be hard to climb into it now knowing where my last memory of him lives. I will miss him terribly beyond words. My deepest heartfelt sympathies to the entire family.
