This is so sad.... i cant believe shes gone.... We just seen her not that long ago at lunch time... I only knew this wonderful lady from taco bell but we just loved her!! And this lady was a really hard worker. We went to Taco Bell for lunch alot knowing she would be there to take our order and get it right. She knew our order as soon as we walked in the door... She will be dearly missed... My thoughts & prayers are with her family & friends.... May she R.I.P from Jenny & Tim Norem... WE MISS YOU ALREADY....

Mary really was one of a kind. She always knew when someone was depressed, and would go out of her way to make their day better. There wasn't anybody I knew who didn't love her. A great heart, a contagious laugh, and an awesome personality. I'm very thankful to have met such an amazing and wonderful woman. I will never forget you, Mary! Love you!

Mary, as an avid Taco Bell go-er, I always looked forward to seeing your bright, smiling face. I would intentionally go to see you before you got off work at 2:00. Taco Bell will never be the same without you. I will miss your hugs. I will always be your "Buddy"-"Seed of Chucky" (as you named me the first time we met)Matt Johnson

Mary was a one of a kind woman for sure! Though she may have came off to some as an obnoxious woman, she was always just having fun! She made the working experience exciting, fun, and made days that will never be forgotten! Mary, may you rest in peace! I'm sure you'll continue having the same fun you had here on earth up in Heaven! Until we meet again! -Shaynna Reese & Family
