Tina, Tonya and Tracy,I am so very sorry for loss of your beautiful mother. While I only met her a few times she was kind to me. When I first traveled to Iowa in 1992 to meet y'all the first time she welcomed my son Christian and I with open arms. She was so proud of all of you and all her beautiful grandchildren and great grand grandchildren. The next few days will be so busy with people coming and going. I pray for strength as you make it through these days. But I pray more for the days after the services when there is silence and you begin to carry on without her.Take comfort that there is now no pain, no suffering as she joins your Daddy and her parents in glory with our Heavenly Father. Ya'll will be on my mind and in my prayers. Revelations 21:4 says this:He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed.
