Reggie and Barbara traveled the country during their retirement. Most of the trips revolved around bowling in the National Bowling Tournament. They enjoyed spending time with their bowling friends and seeing the sights of our country. Reggie loved bowling. He and Barbara actually met in a bowling alley in Chicago, which established the passion of bowling in their family. Reggie had numerous first place finishes in both league and city tournament action during his career. Even bowling a 300 game at the Iowa State Tournament in 1984. He averaged 167 during his last season of bowling at the age of 93!

Reggie also enjoyed golfing. A 15 handicap golfer, he never shot a hole-in-one, but was very proud of shooting 78 in May of 2000 at Valley Oaks. He had some great times with all of his golfing buddies! Reggie and his son, Robert, golfed with Harold Jackson and Ron Streets weekly during the summers of 2021-2024. He cherished those times. During Reggie's last nine holes of golf, this past May, he made a par on number 9 at Valley Oaks on a long putt.

Reggie was adored by his loving family. He is survived by his three children: Karen Friis of Camanche, Robert (Stacey) Reppert of Clinton, and Amy (Mike) Burmahl of Camanche; six grandchildren: Sarah (Beau) Brewer, Bradley (Lyla) Parker, Callie (Colten) Hilgendorf, Luke (Samantha) Reppert, Stefanie Burmahl, and Morgan Burmahl; and seven great-grandchildren: Caleb, Riley, Maddie, Avery, Jackson, Brynne, and Everson. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his parents, and a granddaughter: Samantha.

Feel free to show your support for Reggie by wearing Chicago Cubs, Chicago Bears, or Iowa State Cyclones apparel for the Visitation Thursday.

Memorials can be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church in Camanche.
