Betty Lou Neumann was born on May 12, 1936 in Clinton, the daughter of William C. and Mabel G. (Cox) Neumann. She was a 1954 graduate of Clinton High School. Betty married Henry T. Berg on July 23, 1976 in Clinton. They made their home in Fulton, Illinois for many years. Henry passed away on November 20, 2006.

Betty was a bookkeeper for Agri-Co Chemical Company and Krambeck Feed and Grain. She also was a travel agent with Gateway Travel.

Betty had a gift of crafting. She enjoyed sharing her talents with the Whiteside County Home Extension, her family, and friends. She also loved sewing, knitting and crocheting. She regularly played cards, meeting for decades with the same group of high school friends. Betty loved hosting tea parties, the color blue, reading, and flowers. Betty was always so gracious and loving to me. Pam has been my best friend since they moved to Fulton in about 5th grade. We were together probably 18 hours out of a day until High school graduation! Betty was an incredible lady such a great cook, I loved when she'd ask if I wanted to stay for dinner, cuz I usually did! She & Henry enjoyed many friends, entertaining company, playing cards. Was a home full of fun and laughter She enjoyed crafting and was very talented, didn't mind when we wanted to join in or see what she was currently working on. What a great sense of humor, she was so funny sometimes and had such a joyful attitude about day to day life. She was another mother to me and I'm so lucky to have felt her welcoming spirit. Never did she tell me I had to "go home now", she was always just patient and kind. Thank You Betty for loving me, I will miss you, I loved you too, very much! ❤️ My condolences to the family.
